AMENDMENT 5 – Relating to Recall

Article XI of the Charter of the City of East Providence is hereby amended by adding the following section hereto in its entirety.

Sec. 11-25. Recall.

Recall is authorized in the case of a mayor, council member, or school committee member who has been indicted or informed against for a felony, convicted of a misdemeanor, or against whom a finding of probable cause of violation of the code of ethics has been made by the ethics commission or who has committed a willful violation of any provision of the charter as determined by a preponderance of the evidence by the ethics commission or a state court of competent jurisdiction. Recall shall not, however be instituted at any time during the last nine (9) months of an individual's term of office. Such a recall may be instituted by filing with the canvassing authority an application for issuance of a recall petition against said mayor, council member, or school committee member which is signed by duly qualified electors equal to three percent (3%) of the total number of votes cast at the last preceding general election for that office.

The canvassing authority shall within seven (7) days from the date of the filing of such petition examine it and shall from the voters registered determine the sufficiency thereof. If, upon verification by the canvassing authority the application is determined to contain signatures of the required number of electors, the canvassing authority shall, forthwith, issue a recall petition.

Within ninety (90) days of said issuance, a written petition demanding the removal of the mayor, or a member of the city council or a member of the school committee shall be filed with the canvassing authority. When removal of the mayor, or a member of the city council at large or a member of the school committee at large is sought said petition shall contain the signatures of duly qualified electors constituting twenty percent (20%) of the total number of votes cast in the last preceding general election for said office provided, however, when recall of the mayor, a council member at large or a school committee member at large is sought no less than twenty percent (20%) of the total signatures required may be from any one ward. When removal of any other member of the city council or school committee member is sought, said petition shall contain the signatures of duly qualified electors constituting twenty percent (20%) of the total number of votes cast in the last preceding general election for said office of the ward from which such member was elected.

The signatures to the application and to the recall petition need not all be on one (1) sheet of paper, but each such application and petition must contain an identical statement naming the person to be recalled, the office held by said person, and the grounds for such recall set forth in a statement of one hundred (100) words or less approved by the canvassing authority. Each signatory must set forth his or her signature and printed name as it appears on the voting list, and his or her place of residence. The person witnessing the signatures of each elector on said petition must sign a statement under oath on said sheet attesting that the signatures thereon are genuine and were signed in his or her presence. If the requisite number of signatures are not obtained within said ninety (90) day period, the recall effort shall terminate.

The canvassing authority shall within ten (10) days from the date of the filing of such petition examine it and shall from the voters registered determine the sufficiency thereof and certify the results to the city council forthwith.

If the examination shows that the petition contains the requisite number of signatures, the city council shall order and fix, forthwith, a date for holding an election, which date shall not be less than sixty (60) nor more than ninety (90) days from the date that the canvassing authority certified the petition as sufficient.

Each ballot at such election shall have printed thereon the grounds for removing said office holder and the following question: "Shall (name of person) be removed from the office of (name of office)?" Immediately following such question, there shall be printed on the ballot the following two (2) propositions in this order:

"Yes"

"No"

In any such election, if a majority of the votes cast on the question of removal is affirmative, the person whose removal is sought shall thereupon be deemed removed from office as of certification of the results by the canvassing authority.

At such time the office shall be immediately declared vacant and shall be filled in accordance with the charter of the city. The person so removed shall not be eligible to fill the unexpired portion of the term of office.

The city council may, through ordinance, make other and further regulations for carrying out the provisions of this section not inconsistent herewith.

AMENDMENT 21 [Sub A – Amended] - Relating to the Tax Cap

Sec. 5-14. Cap on maximum tax rate increase.

- (a) ~~Beginning in fiscal year 2012, the city may not increase its property tax rate by more than three and one-half percent over the prior year's tax rate. In all years when a revaluation is not being implemented, a tax rate is deemed to be 103.5 percent or less of the prior year's tax rate if the tax on a parcel of real property, the value of which is unchanged for purpose of taxation, is no more than 103.5 percent of the prior year's tax on the same parcel of real property. In any year when a revaluation is being implemented, the tax rate is deemed to be 103.5 percent of the prior year's tax rate upon certification by the department of finance for the city.~~
- (b) ~~The property tax rate increase may exceed the three and one-half percent increase only upon approval by a supermajority of four of the city council.~~

~~(c) The tax rate may exceed the percentage increase as specified in subsection (a) of this section if one of the following occurs:~~

~~(1) The city forecasts or experiences a loss in total non-property tax revenues and the loss is certified by the director of finance.~~

~~(2) The city experiences or anticipates an emergency situation, which causes or will cause the tax rate to exceed this percentage increase specified in subsection (a). Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, an emergency shall be deemed to exist when the city experiences or anticipates health insurance costs, retirement contributions or utility expenditures which exceed the prior fiscal year's health insurance costs, retirement contributions or utility expenditures by a percentage greater than three times the percentage increase as specified in subsection (a) of this section.~~

~~(3) The city forecasts or experiences debt services expenditures which exceed the prior year's debt service expenditures by an amount greater than the percentage increase as specified in subsection (a) of this section and which are the result of bonded debt issued in a manner consistent with general law or a special act.~~

~~(4) The city experiences substantial growth in its tax base as the result of major new construction which necessitates either significant infrastructure or school housing expenditures by the city or a significant increase in the need for essential municipal services and such increase in expenditures or demand for services is certified by the director of finance.~~

a) The State of Rhode Island, by and through its general assembly, has set forth laws controlling the process and procedures for municipal taxation. All property taxation processes and procedures are therefore defined and set forth by the general assembly and preempt any provision herein. The property taxation provisions of this charter only apply to the extent that they do not conflict with the laws as enacted and as may be amended by the general assembly.

b) The City of East Providence may levy a tax in an amount not more than three and one half percent (3.5%) in excess of the total amount levied and certified for the previous fiscal year.

- c) The amount levied by the City may exceed the increase specified herein only if the city or town qualifies under one or more of the provisions outlined in Rhode Island General Laws Title 44 Taxation, Chapter 5 Levy and Assessment of Local Taxes Subsection 2(d) Maximum levy, as may be amended from time to time.

AMENDMENT 22 [Sub A] – Relating to Revenues

Sec. 5-5. Revenues anticipated.

- (1) Anticipated revenues shall be classified as "amount to be raised by property tax," "miscellaneous revenues" and "surplus." Miscellaneous revenues shall be sub-classified by each sources and shall be estimated as hereinafter prescribed.
- (2) Miscellaneous revenues shall include all anticipated revenues not included within the "amount to be raised by property tax," ~~from the collection of taxes other than the general property tax;~~ including but not limited to the amount of federal aid to be received; state aid to be received; the amount by which the city is expected to benefit from taxes collected by the state; the amounts estimated to be received from services and sales, fines, forfeitures and fees, pension assessments, special assessments and any other special or nonrecurring sources.

AMENDMENT 24 (SUB A) – Relating to the Budget Reserve Fund

Sec. 5-15. ~~[Budget reserve fund.]~~ Fund Balance and Budget Act

- ~~(a) No budget act shall cause the aggregate expenditures enacted in any given fiscal year to exceed ninety nine percent (99%) of the anticipated revenues for such fiscal year as defined in Article V, Sec. 5-5 of this Charter.~~
- ~~(b) There is hereby established a budget reserve fund. Revenues in this budget reserve fund may be included in the budget, whenever:~~
- (1) Except as explicitly authorized herein, every budget act enacted in any given fiscal year must allocate at least one percent (1%) of anticipated general fund operating revenues for any given fiscal year to the Fund Balance.

- a. Any given fiscal year budget act's aggregate expenditures may only exceed ninety nine percent (99%) of anticipated general fund operating revenues if the Fund Balance is greater than twelve percent (12%) of the prior fiscal year general fund operating revenues.
- (2) There is hereby established a Fund Balance. Said Fund Balance is funded with monies that are not otherwise allocated within any given fiscal year budget act.
- a. The Fund Balance shall be segregated into two (2) parts, the restricted Fund Balance and the unrestricted Fund Balance.
  - b. The restricted Fund Balance shall take funding priority over the unrestricted Fund Balance. No funds may be allocated to the unrestricted Fund Balance until the restricted Fund Balance is equal to at least seven percent (7%) of the general fund operating revenues.
  - c. The restricted Fund Balance must be kept in reserve and will not be included in the general fund operating budget, unless:
    - i. The city forecasts or experiences a loss in total ~~non-property tax~~ revenues and the loss is certified by the director of finance;
    - ii. The city experiences or anticipates an emergency situation, which shall be deemed to exist when the city experiences or anticipates health insurance costs, retirement contributions or utility expenditures which exceed the prior fiscal year's health insurance costs, retirement contributions or utility expenditures by a percentage greater than ten and one-half percent (10.5%);
    - iii. The city forecasts or experiences debt services expenditures net of any state aid reimbursement which exceed the prior year's debt service expenditures by an amount greater than three and one-half percent (3.5%) and which are the result of bonded debt issued in a manner consistent with general law or a special act;
    - iv. The city experiences substantial growth in its tax base as the result of major new construction which necessitates either significant infrastructure or school housing expenditures by the city or a significant increase in the need for essential municipal services and such increase in expenditures or demand for services is certified by the director of finance.

~~Whenever funds are used, they must be replenished in equal parts over the three (3) succeeding fiscal years to the amount that would have been in the fund had the expenditures not been made from the fund.~~

(~~e~~ d) The amount between the applicable percentage in (~~a~~) subsection (1) and one hundred percent (100%) of the anticipated general fund operating revenues for any fiscal year ~~defined in Article V, Sec. 5-5 of this Charter~~ shall be transferred in any given fiscal year into the ~~budget reserve~~ Fund Balance; provided, however, that no such payment will be made which would increase the total of the ~~budget reserve~~ Fund Balance to more than ~~ten~~ twelve percent (~~10~~ 12%) of only the anticipated general operating fund revenues as set by subsection (~~a~~) (1) of this section.

(~~d~~ e) ~~In the event that the payment to be made into the budget reserve fund would increase the total of the budget reserve fund to more than ten percent (10%) of the anticipated revenues as defined in Article V, Sec. 5-5 of this Charter. In the event that the payment to be made into the budget reserve~~ Fund Balance would increase the amount in said account to more than ~~ten~~ twelve percent (~~10~~ 12%) of ~~estimated~~ anticipated state general operating fund revenues that said amount shall be transferred to a capital fund to be used solely for funding capital projects.

(3) Capital projects shall not include debt reduction, principal or interest payments on debt, or for any other type of financing arrangement, but shall only be used for payment of direct actual expenses incurred for capital projects.

(4) For the purpose of this section, general fund operating revenues is defined as the city and school budget, less the state aid and federal aid restricted to the school budget.
